

FANSHAWE COLLEGE

Dean, Regional Campuses/Community Services (Continuing Education)

Fanshawe College invites applications and nominations for the position of Dean, Regional Campuses/Community Services (Continuing Education), to take office as soon as possible and ideally not later than July 2010. This is a newly created senior position in response to the recent integration of Community Services (London, Continuing Education) with Fanshawe's three Regional Campus operations in St. Thomas, Simcoe, and Woodstock. This new, innovative, creative and flexible unit of Fanshawe will serve as a single point of access for the region's increasing number of adult learners.

Fanshawe College is the largest college in southwestern Ontario and is one of the province's most successful, innovative and fast growing community colleges. Fanshawe offers over 100 different post-secondary diploma and certificate programs, numerous applied and collaborative degrees, and a variety of specialized certificate and contract training programs to over 15,000 full-time and 35,000 continuing education students. Increased services to new and emerging markets is a major strategic priority for Fanshawe, and the College works with employers, advisors and other members of the community to meet the changing needs of learners now, and in a post-recession economy. For more information please visit www.fanshawec.ca

Reporting to the Senior Vice President, Academic, the Dean, Regional Campuses/Community Services (Continuing Education) will provide leadership in the assessment, planning, development, marketing, organization, delivery and administration of education and training needs and services. He/she will establish linkages with senior representatives in business, industry, government and the surrounding communities to promote awareness of the College's programs, and ensure that all parties succeed in achieving their education and training goals and objectives. The Dean will be a visionary change agent who understands the importance of quality and excellence in community-based settings.

Ideal candidates will possess a Master's degree, along with several years of progressive administrative experience, ideally within a post-secondary setting. A commitment to lifelong learning and an understanding of new learning technologies and alternate delivery models will be essential. Candidates must be able to inspire, cultivate and enable a high level of faculty and staff performance within a collegial, collaborative and innovative environment. Excellent managerial, interpersonal and communication skills will enable candidates to participate successfully in academic and strategic planning, budgeting, and team and partnership building throughout the College and its communities.

Fanshawe is a vibrant, fast-paced organization that is committed to delivering excellence in teaching and learning to students. Fanshawe College is committed to employment equity and welcomes applications from all qualified women and men, including visible minorities, aboriginal people and persons with disabilities.

The Search Committee will begin reviewing applications immediately and continue until the role is successfully filled. Applications should include a letter of introduction, curriculum vitae and three references (who will not be contacted without consent of the applicant) and should be sent electronically, in confidence, to:

Laverne Smith & Associates Inc.

1 Yonge Street, Suite 1801
Toronto, ON M5E 1W7
fanshawedean@lavernesmith.com

