

Seminar Invitation

- Topic: New community based approaches to the making of public policy
- Speakers: Martha McCoy & Patrick Scully
- Date: Wednesday 5 November 2008
- Time: 3:00pm – 5:00pm (including drinks)
- Where: Scarth Room
University House
Corner Balmain Cr & Liversidge St
The Australian National University
Acton, 2601

Peter Shergold, CEO of the Centre for Social Impact and Peter Peterson, CEO of Adult Learning Australia are delighted to jointly host this important event. They are persuaded that the experience of Everyday Democracy can inform Australia's social inclusion agenda.

Martha McCoy is the Executive Director of Everyday Democracy and Dr Patrick Scully is the Deputy Director.

Everyday Democracy is a national organisation in the US helping local communities find ways for all kinds of people to think, talk and work together to solve problems. It is at the leading edge of connecting public dialogue to democratic governance and has won a number of prestigious awards.

RSVP: Wednesday 22 October 2008
csi@unsw.edu.au

The Centre for Social Impact is a partnership between the University of Melbourne, the University of New South Wales and Swinburne University of Technology. It aims to support and strengthen the social enterprises of today and educate and inspire the social entrepreneurs of tomorrow.