

Where are the proceeds going?

All proceeds go to community rebuilding projects in Aceh organised by the Centre for Women's Resource Development (Pusat Pengembangan Sumberdaya Wanita- PPSW)

PPSW Background

PPSW is a member organisation of ASPBAE and was founded in 1986 as a community development organisation based in Jakarta. The primary objective is the empowerment of women, in particular those women in the lowest socio-economic strata of society in urban and rural areas.

PPSW has been working in more than 50 villages in a number of provinces in Indonesia such as Aceh, DKI-Indonesia, West Java, Central Java, North Sumatra, Riau and West Kalimantan.

PPSW's mission is to enhance women's standards of living, knowledge and skills at the community level and the development of local institutions and leadership for women.

PPSW focuses on several issues of concerns including

- Social economic
- Reproductive health and rights
- Migrant workers
- Education
- Violence against women

Funds raised at the ASPBAE Post Tsunami Fundraising Dinner will be used by PPSW to focus on the rebuilding of key Civil Society Institutions, focussing particularly on supporting community organisers because of their unique ability to mobilise the wider community.
